Dear Parents,

We are well over the holiday celebrations and have settled back into our routine without too much protest. The children are confident in their own abilities and are eager to try out new learning experiences. We will endeavor to further extend activities to keep the children interested and actively challenged.

We have completed our mid-year assessments, and we will be modifying the lesson plans and small groups to develop those areas that need more attention unique to each child. The children progress at various degrees and have different strengths and weaknesses, for example some children have very strong fine motor skills, but they need support in letter or number recognition. The main objective of these assessments is to check that there is some improvement in comparison to October's assessments.

Tips for teaching letters

- Surprise your child with a note in their lunch box. - They love to 'read' it to us.
- Make a letter/ picture book with the letters in their name - each page a different letter.
- Make letters with straight pretzels, pipe cleaners, Lego, sand, tomato ketchup, play dough etc
- Have your child identify letters in cereal boxes, road signs, magazines, store names etc
- Write a letter, say its sound, and brainstorm words and find objects that begin with that letter.

Love, Preschool Teachers

Just a Reminder

- We are a PEANUT-FREE school.
- Label ALL your child's belonging. This includes but is not limited to diapers, bottles, cups, clothing, sheets, etc.

Books of the Month

We love reading books in the classroom and we read every day. Here is list of books that you can enjoy with your toddler.

1. You are Important by Todd Snow
2. I Love You Through and Through by Bernadette Rossetti- Shustak
3. President's Day by Anne Rockwell
4. Duck for President by Doreen Cronin

Teacher Communication

If there is anything you would like to discuss with your child's teacher, please feel free to contact them at your convenience through the ProCare app.
